INCIDENTS

1/31/24 – 1800 block Paper Mill Road – Several Officers were dispatched to the Springfield Township High School for an assault victim. It was discovered that a group of 4 individuals attacked a student from another school after a basketball game. Several teachers separated the attackers prior to police arrival. EMS was dispatched and the victim of the attack was transported to the hospital. Responding Officers utilized video surveillance within the school to identify the actors. These individuals have charges pending with the Montgomery County Juvenile Court.

2/2/24 – 2900 block Cheltenham Avenue (Cheltenham Township) – Several Springfield Officers responded with the Cheltenham Police Department for a large group of 15-20 juveniles fighting. As Cheltenham Police arrived on scene, it was discovered that it was a large group of juveniles playing around and that a fight never took place. The Springfield Officers were resumed to normal patrol operations prior to their arrival.
