INCIDENTS:

5/22/25 – A female was being investigated for stealing narcotics from a resident at Saint Joseph's Villa on the 100 block of Wissahickon Ave. After police interviewed staff, residents, reviewed medication logs and video footage, a female travel nurse was charged with acquiring/obtaining possession of controlled substance and other related charges.

5/23/25 – Police responded to a delayed report of a vehicle break-in on the 8800 block of Patton Rd. A female reported that that she believes her wallet was stolen out of her unlocked car. A neighbor had found her wallet on the ground and returned it, but she noticed it was missing three credit cards. This female later was informed by her bank that someone was attempting to use the missing cards.
