INCIDENTS:

11/25/2025 – Police were dispatched to the intersection of Bethlehem Pike and E Mill Rd for a vehicle accident. Upon arrival, police spoke with both parties. The at-fault driver had an odor of alcoholic beverage on her breath, had bloodshot eyes, and slurred speech. She did admit to drinking prior to driving. The driver agreed to the Standard Field Sobriety Tests. Due to the test results and signs of impairment, she was taken into custody for suspicion of DUI.

11/28/2025 – Police were dispatched to the Dollar Tree on the 1800 block of Bethlehem Pike for a report of theft. Police were informed that the theft was carried out by an employee who took cash from the register and then left mid-shift. Management provided police with the employee's information. Charges for theft will be filed once police receive and review video footage provided by the store.
