1/25/2026 – While on patrol, a vehicle drove past an officer that was emanating the smell of marijuana. The vehicle did not have headlights on during the snowstorm, even though the windshield wipers were on. The officer made a traffic stop on the 8000 block of Cheltenham Ave and could smell the strong odor of brunt marijuana coming from the vehicle. There was a burnt marijuana roach in plain view and the driver pulled paraphernalia out of his pocket. Standardized Field Sobriety tests were performed, but not all could be completed because of the snow on the ground. The driver also admitted to drinking alcohol that morning. The male was taken into custody for the suspicion of DUI.
