INCIDENTS:

10/5/2026 – Police were dispatched to the Fine Wine and Spirits on the 1400 block of Bethlehem Pike for a male who had stolen multiple bottles from the store with a mask on. The male was gone before police arrived. The video footage was provided to police. The investigation is ongoing.

10/6/2026 – Police were dispatched to the 200 block of Montgomery Ave for a suspicious person who entered the caller's vehicle that was parked in his driveway. Police found the male walking in the parking lot of Philmont Christian Academy. After the male's identification was confirmed, the dispatcher made police aware that he had an active warrant out of the Philadelphia Municipal Court. The male was taken into custody for Loitering and Prowling at Night as well as his active warrant.

10/7/2026 – Police were dispatched to the area of Paper Mill Rd and Golf Rd for suspicious activity after a male reported being followed. Officers located the male walking alone with a Nerf gun. He stated he was trying to get to Jenkintown, and officers advised they could transport him only as far as the Abington border. Before allowing him into the patrol car, officers conducted a search in accordance with protocol and located containers of substances and drug paraphernalia. The male was taken into custody and processed for intentional possession of a controlled substance and related charges. Fingerprint results later confirmed that he had provided false identification and had an active arrest warrant out of Philadelphia. He was transported to Philadelphia Police.

10/11/2026 – Police were dispatched to the 2100 block of Church Rd for suspicious activity. The caller stated there were multiple vehicles that people were getting in and out of. When police arrived, they had to settle an unrelated disturbance at the corner. The vehicles in question were gone on arrival, except for one camper. The police spoke to the owner of the camper, who confirmed that it had been stolen because it was last seen in his driveway. Police also found items in the area that belonged to an individual in Philadelphia. Police reached out to Philadelphia police, and upon further investigation, that individual's car had been stolen. The investigation is ongoing.

REMINDER: Lock your vehicles every night and remove anything of value.
